KEY FEATURES OF THIS POLICY

Cover options

You can choose one of the following cover options for your house:

Area Replacement

Where your house is damaged by a covered event, we'll pay the reasonable costs to repair or rebuild the damaged parts of the house to a condition substantially the same as it was in when it was new. If your property is a total loss, we'll pay the reasonable costs to rebuild your house to the same floor area as is recorded in the policy schedule.

Agreed Value

You will have the same rights as under Area Replacement cover except that our liability will be limited to no more than the sum insured recorded in the policy schedule. In limited circumstances we may require your house to be insured on this basis (for example, if it is a very expensive property or if it has unique features that are hard to value).

Indemnity Value

An Indemnity Value policy restricts the amount of cover to the reasonable costs of repairing or replacing the damaged part of your house to the condition it was in immediately before the loss. We may require this restricted cover on properties that are in sub-standard condition.

Important conditions of cover

House use

You must notify us if your house is going to be unoccupied and, unless we agree otherwise, cover is limited to restricted perils if the house is unoccupied for more than 60 days.

Being a responsible landlord

Special conditions apply to this policy and must be complied with to ensure ongoing cover under the policy. You are required to follow good business practice in managing any tenancy by taking due care when selecting tenants, undertaking regular inspections, maintaining the property, and by keeping track of rent arrears.

Property under repair or alteration

You must notify us if you are undertaking renovations, alterations or repairs to your property. Limitations to the cover provided by this policy will apply and, depending on the nature of the works, we may require you to take out a separate Contract Works policy to ensure that your property is adequately covered.

Notifying us when things change

You must tell us immediately if, at any time after the start of this policy, there are changes in circumstances that may alter the nature of the risk or increase the likelihood of a claim occurring.

Examples of a change that could make a claim more likely include but are not limited to:

1. leaving the property unoccupied for a period exceeding 60 days; or
2. undertaking renovations or other significant building work, particularly if it involves removing the roof, altering structural walls or piles and foundations; or
3. a local authority or Government imposes or notifies a change affecting the property or the land, such as the addition of heritage status, or the issuance of any notice on the land or property such as being subject to section 36(2) of the Building Act 1991, earthquake-prone status or flood risk changes; or
4. if you or any other person insured under the policy commits, is charged with, or convicted of, any criminal offence.

Cover exclusions

There are a range of specific exclusions to the cover provided by this policy which include such things as damage or loss caused by wear and tear, poor workmanship or design or faulty materials, land damage (refer to Section One of the policy for further details), and a number of general exclusions in Section Three of the policy.

Your obligations

You must act honestly when making a claim, you must contact us as soon as you can after you are aware of loss or damage giving rise to a claim, and you must cooperate with us by providing the information we seek to settle your claim.

WELCOME

Thank you for choosing to entrust us with your residential rental property house insurance policy needs. We have designed this document to provide a clear understanding of your contract with us. If anything is unclear or you have any questions, please contact us on 0800 800 627.

Please read the following document carefully. It contains important information regarding what we can and can't cover in our agreement with you.

Changing your mind

If you are not completely happy with this policy, or you change your mind, please tell us within 30 days of it commencing. We will cancel your policy as if it had never existed and refund in full any premium you have paid.

Please note that this clause does not apply if a claim has been made.

Your policy and how it works

Your policy consists of:

1. your application and any other information you supplied us; and
2. this policy wording; and
3. the schedule and any subsequent renewal advice or endorsement notices.

Once you have agreed to pay the premium and we have accepted your application, we will insure you under this policy for the term shown in the schedule. You cannot make a claim until you have paid your premium.

Failure to pay the premium within 30 days of the commencement of the term will result in this policy being deemed null and void from the start date of the term.

The words in this policy in bold are defined. The definitions are at the back of this document, or where they apply only to one clause, within that clause.

The headings and section introductions are for reference only and must not be used in interpreting this document.

Your duty of disclosure

When arranging, amending or renewing this policy, you have a legal duty of disclosure. You must tell us everything you know (or could be reasonably expected to know) that a prudent insurer would want to take into account in deciding:

1. whether to accept or decline your insurance; and
2. the premium or other terms and conditions of the insurance, including the excess.

If you breach this duty, we may decline to pay all or part of your claim, or your policy cover may be cancelled as if it had never existed.

When in doubt, disclose. We treat all information confidentially.

Change in circumstances

You must tell us immediately if, at any time after the start of this policy, there are changes that may alter the nature of the risk or increase the likelihood of a claim occurring.

Examples of a change in circumstances may include (but are not limited to):

1. leaving the property unoccupied for a period exceeding 60 days; or
2. undertaking renovations or other significant building work, particularly if it involves removal of the roof, alterations to structural walls or piles and foundations; or
3. a local authority or government imposed or notified change affecting the property or the land, such as addition of heritage status, any notice on the land or property such as being subject to section 36(2) of the Building Act 1991, earthquake-prone status or flood risk changes; or
4. if you or any other person insured under the policy commits, is charged with, or convicted of, any criminal offence.

After you have told us about a change in circumstances, we may amend the premium and/or other terms and conditions of this policy.

If you are in any doubt, you should disclose information, whether or not we have asked questions that relate to it. If we are not told about a change in circumstances, we will be entitled to decline any claim and we may cancel this policy from the date of the change.

Take reasonable care

You, and anyone else covered under this policy, must take reasonable care to avoid circumstances that may result in a claim and take all necessary action to minimise claim costs.

Your claim or that of any other person covered under this policy will not be covered if you or they are reckless or grossly irresponsible.

Your property must be locked and the keys removed when unattended.

Interested parties

You must tell us if any party or entity, such as a bank or finance company, has a financial interest in any of the property insured under this policy.

We may pay all or part of the claim proceeds to them, and any such payment satisfies our obligations to you in respect of that payment.

By notifying us of the interested party, you authorise us to disclose personal information about you to this party. A party who we record as having a financial interest under this policy is not insured by this policy and has no rights to claim directly under this policy.

If the property is owned by anyone other than you, such as the trustees of a family trust, you must notify us so we can ensure that the correct party(s) or entity(s) are named as 'The Insured' in the schedule.

Cancellation

You may cancel this policy at any time by giving us notice and we will refund any premium due to you based on the period of the term that you have not used. We may retain a minimum premium charge for the time cover has been provided.

We may cancel this policy during the term if:

1. you have failed to meet the obligations of the 'Your duty of disclosure' clause or 'Change in circumstances' clause in the Welcome Section of this policy; or
2. a change in circumstances results in you or your property no longer meeting our underwriting qualifying criteria; or
3. you have failed to meet the obligations of the 'Policy compliance' clause in the General Conditions Section of this policy; or
4. you have failed to pay the premium within 30 days of the term starting; or
5. you have failed to pay the value of a dishonoured premium instalment within 30 days of the dishonour occurring; or
6. you have acted fraudulently or dishonestly; or
7. you breach your duty of utmost good faith to us.

We will send you written notice of cancellation to your last known postal or email address at least 14 days before the cancellation takes effect (except where you have failed to pay the premium within 30 days of the term starting. In this event, your policy will be cancelled from the start of the term without further notice to you). We will refund the unused portion of any premium you have already paid to us.

Your policy is automatically cancelled if we pay out the applicable total sum insured, replacement or indemnity value of your policy on a claim. If this happens, there will be no refund of premium.

Fair Insurance Code

We are members of the Insurance Council of New Zealand (ICNZ), an organisation that promotes a code of practice among its members called the Fair Insurance Code.

The code sets out some of your rights when dealing with us. If we fail to comply with the Fair Insurance Code, we can be reprimanded, fined, or expelled from the ICNZ. We view the Fair Insurance Code guidelines as a minimum only and encourage you to read the code to understand your rights and responsibilities when dealing with us. Please contact us if you would like to receive a copy of the code, alternatively, it can be accessed at: icnz.org.nz.

Making a complaint

We are committed to high standards of customer service. If you are not satisfied with our service, a decision we have made, or our company policies, please contact us and let us know. We have a formal complaints procedure to help resolve any problems that may arise.

If you make a complaint to us, we will:

1. acknowledge we have received your complaint within five business days;
2. give you the name and contact details of the person handling your complaint;
3. ensure that an experienced person who has not handled your case fully investigates your complaint;
4. respond to your complaint within 10 business days of the date we have all the information we need to determine your complaint. Where further information, assessment or investigation is required, we will agree reasonable timeframes with you. If we cannot agree on reasonable timeframes, you can contact our independent external dispute resolution scheme about those timeframes;
5. update you at least once every 20 business days, or another such interval as we may agree with you, until your complaint is resolved.

If we cannot resolve your complaint to your satisfaction through our internal dispute resolution process within two months, we will explain our reasons to you in writing and provide you with a 'letter of deadlock'. Depending on the nature of the problem, you may then have access to our independent, external dispute resolution scheme, the Insurance and Financial Services Ombudsman Scheme which is available to help resolve disputes: ifso.org.nz.

If you feel your human rights have been breached you can contact the Human Rights Commission on 0800 496 877 or through its website: hrc.co.nz.

Insurance Claims Register

The Insurance Claims Register (The Register) is a database of insurance claims to which we have access. It is operated by Insurance Claims Register Limited, PO Box 474, Wellington.

The purpose of The Register is to check prior claims histories and to prevent fraudulent claims.

We provide this insurance to you on the basis that you authorise us to:

1. obtain details about your prior claims from The Register; and
2. provide to The Register details of your claims with us.

You have rights of access to, and correction of, your personal information on The Register under the Privacy Act 1993.

Natural disaster cover

Where your property suffers loss due to a natural disaster, cover is provided by the Earthquake Commission through EQCover. The premium you pay to us includes the premium for EQCover. We are not liable under this policy for any loss to your property arising from natural disaster unless the Earthquake Commission declares the natural disaster to be an event covered by EQCover.

We will then:

- where the Earthquake Commission accepts a claim for the loss and assesses the loss as greater than the applicable limit of EQCover, cover the difference between the applicable limit of EQCover and the amount we would have paid to repair or replace the property if the event had been covered in full by this policy, up to the maximum limits of this policy, and subject to the 'How we will settle your claim' Section of this policy wording; and
- provide cover for items of insured property that are not insured under EQCover (e.g. swimming pools, fences and paths) but which we have agreed to insure on the terms of this policy.

If the Earthquake Commission declares the natural disaster to be an event covered by EQCover, we will provide cover under the automatic additional benefits in this policy. If the Earthquake Commission declines your claim for EQCover, no cover will be available under this policy for the loss or for the automatic additional benefits. If the Earthquake Commission does not declare the natural disaster to be an event covered by EQCover, there is no cover for the automatic additional benefits unless we accept a claim under the terms of this policy.

There are a number of terms and conditions and exclusions of your EQCover, and you will be required to pay an excess on all EQCover claims.

If you would like more information about EQCover, please contact us for a brochure or phone the Earthquake Commission on 0800 508 765.

Setting the sum insured

It is your responsibility to ensure the sum insured under your policy is adequate.

For an Agreed Value policy, the sum insured should be equal to the cost to rebuild the insured property. For an Area Replacement policy, the square metre area should represent the total external perimeter of each floor of the main building and any outbuildings.

When insuring a house, be sure to provide us with the area of each storey, the area of any basement or garage and any outbuildings. Please let us know if you have a swimming pool or any unusual feature such as a bridge or driveway exceeding 60 metres in length.

The Insurance Council of New Zealand offers the following guidelines to work out the square metre area:

If you have commissioned a valuation of your property you will often find the total floor area included in the valuation report. When asking for a valuation, make sure the valuer knows you will be relying on the area measurements for insurance purposes. It is best not to rely on the Quotable Value floor area measurement. Experience has shown this can sometimes be incorrect.

To find the total area of your house:

1. Using a tape, measure the external perimeter of the building. If you have a multi story house make sure you include the perimeter of each floor.
2. Measure the external area of decks and covered pergolas. Don't include uncovered paved or concreted areas.
3. Measure the perimeter of any garage or out buildings.
4. Calculate the area of the building and any outbuildings. If you are uncertain how to do this, ask for the assistance of an architect, surveyor or valuer.

If you feel premiums are too high for the sum insured you require, please discuss your concerns with us. We can offer solutions such as voluntary excesses to assist in keeping your insurance costs down.

It is important you review your sum insured or square metre area at every renewal and advise us of adjustments as required. For your house, you must increase the square metre area if alterations or additions are made to ensure these are included in the policy coverage.

One event – one excess

Where an event results in a claim under this policy and another policy you have with us, you only have to pay one excess. This will be the highest applicable excess of any of the policies.

This clause is not applicable where an event results in a claim under this policy and a Business Risks or Contract Works policy.

POLICY INTRODUCTION

House use

Special conditions apply to this policy when your house is being used for different purposes. You must comply with all the following conditions before any claims will be accepted.

Unoccupied property

You must notify us immediately if you think your house is going to be unoccupied for more than 60 days. If no one has been living in the house for more than 60 days, then cover under this policy is limited to loss by restricted perils unless we have agreed in writing to continue cover on standard terms.

If you have advised us that your house is going to be unoccupied and we agree to continue your policy, the conditions below automatically apply:

1. An additional excess of $5,000 applies to loss to your property caused by burglary, theft, attempted theft or malicious persons unless the following protection measures are taken:

 - (d) Mail is redirected or cleared not less than every two weeks.

We may choose to change other terms of the policy as well. All changes will become effective immediately upon notification to you.

If you disagree with the changes to your policy, you may cancel the policy with effect from the date of the proposed changes by providing notice to us. We will refund any premium due to you based on the period of the term that you have not used. We may retain a minimum premium charge for the time cover has been in place.

Hidden gradual loss

- We will pay for:
 - hidden gradual loss to your property that you first discover during the term.
