

Professional Life Plan Total and Permanent Disablement Cover

When working again isn't an option

Why you need TPD cover.

Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) cover pays a lump sum if you suffer a sickness or injury that leaves you permanently unable to work.

Think about the things that are vital to you performing your occupation. For instance, how might the development of a tremor in your dominant hand or losing sight in one eye effect your ability to continue working? What about cutting a tendon in your thumb in a DIY accident or a head injury permanently impairing your memory and ability to concentrate at work?

For professional occupations, experiencing such a sickness or injury may have a significant impact on your ability to carry out your own or any occupation. If you were unable to ever work again as a result of such an event, how would you and your family cope financially?

TPD cover provides a cash lump sum, allowing you to take care of yourself, your family or even your business partners if you suffer a sickness or injury that leaves you permanently unable to work.

It gives you financial freedom that might help to:

- pay for necessary lifestyle changes and medical costs
- clear debts
- continue paying for your children's education
- supplement lost superannuation contributions.

Key features

1. Occupational cover

TPD cover offers two occupational covers:

Own occupation

This option pays a lump sum if you become unable to perform your occupation due to a sickness or injury and are unlikely to ever be able to do so again. This cover is most suited to people in highly trained or specialised occupations.

Any occupation

This option pays a lump sum if you become unable to perform your occupation due to sickness or injury and are unlikely to be able to perform any occupation for which you are reasonably suited by education, training or experience ever again.

2. Non-occupational cover

TPD also includes the following non-occupational covers:

- Domestic duties

Pays a lump sum if you suffer a sickness or injury leading to a permanent inability to undertake full-time domestic duties in your own home.

A great option for stay-at-home parents or those responsible for full-time duties in the family home.

- Loss of limbs/blindness/cognitive impairment

Pays a lump sum if you permanently lose two limbs, your sight in both eyes or experience permanent cognitive impairment.

- Activities of daily living

Pays a lump sum if you suffer a sickness or injury leading to a permanent inability to perform two or more of a defined list of activities of daily living.

3. Other cover provided

- Non-qualifying death benefit

Provides a payment up to $15,000 of the TPD sum insured upon death or terminal illness if you do not have a Life Insurance policy in place, and not otherwise entitled to claim under your TPD cover.

- Single loss of limb or eye benefit

Provides a payment of 25% of the sum insured up to $30,000 if the insured person suffers the loss of a single limb or eye.

- Special events increase benefit

Major life events often mean you need to increase your TPD cover. In the following circumstances you can purchase additional cover, irrespective of your state of health at the time:

- Marriage
- Divorce
- Having a child (by birth or adoption)
- Having a child start full-time tertiary education for the first time
- Becoming a full-time carer for the first time
- Death or terminal illness diagnosis of your spouse
- Effecting or increasing your mortgage
- Entering or increasing your shareholding in a private practice, partnership, or company
- Increase in annual valuation of your business.

- Accelerated or standalone cover

You can choose to have your TPD cover standalone or attached to your Life Insurance. If you select the latter option (known as accelerated cover), any payment made under TPD cover will reduce your Life Insurance sum insured.

- Life Insurance buyback – accelerated cover only

If you have selected accelerated TPD cover, a built-in Life Insurance buyback benefit is automatically included. This allows you to apply to reinstate your Life Insurance cover up to an amount equal to the TPD cover payment, 12 months following this payment, irrespective of your state of health at the time.

Parental grieving benefit

As a parent, the death of a child is unimaginable. If the worst was to happen, we will pay $2,000 if the child was aged under 10 years, and $15,000 if they were aged over 10.

Children's Life Insurance conversion benefit

Once your child turns 21, you can apply to convert the Parental grieving benefit into a separate Life insurance policy for your child, up to $100,000, without medical information.

Grief counselling benefit

If you suffer a serious medical condition, are diagnosed as terminally ill, or die we can pay up to $3,000 in counselling support costs.

Repatriation benefit

If the insured person dies while traveling overseas we will pay $10,000 to support the return of their body to New Zealand.

Future Life Insurance option

Your health can change as you age. By selecting this option, you can purchase additional Life Insurance cover every three years prior to your 55th birthday irrespective of your state of health at the time – protecting your ability to get cover in the future. (Terms and conditions apply to this optional benefit).
